

In our opinion, the tranquility of the home should be more important than that of the solicitors. If I want or need a product I will call whom I please when I please.

With the "NO Call" in place we can now enjoy a meal and not be bothered with unwanted, unsolicited calls at all hours of the day and evening. Keep it in place.

C. Froman